ALAMAR EQUINE EQUESTRIAN, LLC

ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION FOR FLORIDA LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

These Articles of Organization for Alamar Equine Equestrian, LLC, a Florida limited liability company (the "Company"), effective as of the 28 day of Sept, are made by Candice King, as the sole member (the "Member").

Recitals

WHEREAS, the Company was formed on 9.28.16 pursuant to the Florida Revised Limited Liability Company Act Chapter 60 et seq.) ("Act");

WHEREAS, the Member desires to state the Articles of Organization, as set forth below; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the Member declares as follows:

1. Formation.

Effective with the filing of the Articles of Organization (the "Articles"), the Company shall constitute a limited liability company formed pursuant to the Act and other applicable laws of the State of Florida. The Member shall, when required, file such amendments to or restatements of the Articles, in such public offices in the State of Florida or elsewhere as the Member deems advisable to give effect to the provisions of these Articles, and to preserve the character of the Company as a limited liability company.

2. Name; Place of Business; Registered Office and Agent.

The Company shall be conducted under the name of "Alamar Equine Equestrian, LLC" or such other name as the Member shall hereafter designate. The principal office and place of business of the Company shall be located at 2151 NE 212th Ct, Williston, Florida 32696. The initial registered agent for service of process at the registered office of the Company shall be Candice King. The registered office of the Company shall be located at 2151 NE 212th Ct. Williston, Florida 32696.

3. Purpose.

The purposes of the Company are to engage in any activity for which limited liability companies may be organized in the State of Florida. The Company shall possess and may exercise all of the rights, powers and privileges granted by the Act or any other law or by these Articles, together with any powers incidental thereto, so far as such rights, powers and privileges are necessary, customary, convenient or incident to the conduct, promotion, or attainment of the business purposes or activities of the Company.

4. Statutory Compliance.

The Company shall exist under and be governed by, and these Articles shall be construed in accordance with, the applicable laws of the State of Florida. The Member shall execute and file such documents and instruments as may be necessary or appropriate with respect to the formation of, and the conduct of business by, the Company.

5. Title to Company Property.

All property shall be owned by the Company and, insofar as permitted by applicable law, the Member shall have no ownership interest in the property. Except as provided by law, an ownership interest in the Company shall be personal property for all purposes.

6. Management.

6.1. Authority of Member. The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by the Member. Except as provided by applicable law, the Member shall have full and complete authority, power, and discretion to manage and control the business, affairs, and properties of the Company, to make all decisions regarding those matters, and to perform any and all other acts or activities customary or incident to the management of the Company's business. The signature of any one or more persons designated in writing by the Member, or absent such designation, the signature of any officers of the Member, on any document or instrument purporting to bind the Company shall constitute conclusive evidence as to third parties of the authority of such person to execute such document or instrument on behalf of the Company and thereby so bind the Company.

6.2. Duties and Rights of Member.

(a) Certain Duties. The Member shall take all actions necessary or appropriate (i) for the continuation of the Company's valid existence as a limited liability company under the laws of the State of Florida and of each other jurisdiction in which such existence is necessary to protect the limited liability of the Member or to enable the Company to conduct the business in which it is engaged, and (ii) for the accomplishment of the Company's purposes. The Member shall devote to the Company such time as reasonably may be necessary for the proper performance of all duties of the Member under these Articles.

(b) Certain Rights. The Member shall not be required to devote full time to the performance of its duties hereunder and may have other business interests or engage in other business activities. The Member shall not incur liability to the Company or to the Member as a result of engaging in any other business, venture or opportunity.

6.3. Compensation. Compensation of the Member for its management duties shall be fixed from time to time by the Member, absent which the Member shall serve without compensation.

6.4. Officers.

(a) Designation and Duties of Officers. The Member may designate one or more individuals to be officers of the Company. No officer need be a resident of the State of Georgia. Any officers so designated shall have such authority and perform such duties as the Member may delegate to them. The Member may assign titles to particular officers. Unless the Member decides otherwise, if the title is one commonly used for officers of business corporation formed under the Florida Business Corporation Code, the assignment of such title shall constitute the delegation to such officer of the authority and duties that are normally associated with that office. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall be duly designated and shall qualify until his death or until he shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided. Any number of offices may be held by the same individual. The salaries or other compensation, if any, of the officers and agents of the Company shall be fixed by the Member.

(b) Resignation, Removal and Contract Rights of Officers. Any officer may resign as such at any time. Such resignation shall be made in writing and shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if no time be specified, at the time of its receipt by the Member. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective, unless expressly so provided in the resignation. Any officer may be removed as such, either with or without cause, by the Member whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Company will be served thereby; provided, however, that such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Designation of an officer shall not of itself create contract rights. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company may be filled by the Member.

7. Rights and Obligations of the Member.

7.1. Limitation on Member's Liabilities. The Member's liability shall be limited as set forth in these Articles, the Act, and other applicable law. The Member shall not be bound by, or be personally liable for, the expenses, liabilities, or obligations of the Company beyond the amount contributed by the Member to the capital of the Company.

7.2. Voting Rights. Except as otherwise specifically set forth in these Articles, the Member shall have only the voting rights set forth in the Act.

7.3. Action by Member Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Member may be taken with or without a meeting, and with or without any written consents or other writings describing the action taken.

8. Membership Units.

The units of membership interest in the Company ("Units") may be evidenced by a numbered certificate in such form as shall be approved by the Member and shall be executed by an officer or authorized representative of the Member. Any such certificates shall be kept in a book (the "Certificate Book") and shall be issued in consecutive order therefrom. The name of the person owning the Units, the number of Units and the date of issue shall be entered on the books and records of the Company with respect to each certificate. Unit certificates exchanged or returned shall be canceled by the Member or its authorized agent or agents (which initially shall be the Secretary of the Member) and returned to their original place in the Certificate Book. Transfers demand, in connection with the Member's status as a Member of the Company, the Member's participation in the management, business and affairs of the Company or such Member's activities on behalf of the Company, but only if and to the extent such participation or activities are so authorized pursuant to the terms and provisions of this Operating Declaration. By written action of the Member, the Company may, but shall not be required to, indemnify and advance expenses to any officer, director, employee or agent of the Member or of the Company to the extent specified therein or, if not otherwise expressly specified, then to the same extent as such indemnification and advance of expenses would be permitted to be made to a Member pursuant to this Section.

13. Dissolution.

13.1. Events Causing Dissolution. The Company shall be dissolved and its affairs wound up at such time as the Member determines that the Company should be dissolved, or whenever dissolution is required by law.

13.2. Liquidation of Property and Application of Proceeds.

(a) Winding Up. Upon the dissolution of the Company, the Member shall wind up the Company's affairs in accordance with the Act. In winding up the affairs of the Company, the Member are authorized to take any and all actions contemplated by the Act as permissible, including, without limitation:

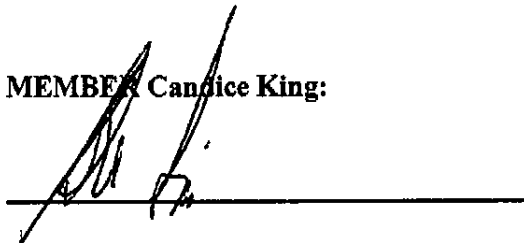

- (i) prosecuting and defending suits, whether civil, criminal or administrative;
- (ii) settling and closing the Company's business;
- (iii) liquidating and reducing to cash the property as promptly as is consistent with obtaining its fair value;
- (iv) discharging or making reasonable provision for the Company's liabilities; and
- (v) distributing the proceeds of liquidation and any undisposed property.

(b) Distribution of Proceeds. Upon the winding up of the Company, the Member shall distribute the proceeds and undisposed property as follows:

- (i) to creditors, including the Member if the Member is a creditor (to the extent and in the order of priority provided by law), in satisfaction of liabilities of the Company, whether by payment or the making of reasonable provisions for payment thereof; and
- (ii) thereafter, to the Member.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the sole Member hereby makes these Articles as of the date first above written.

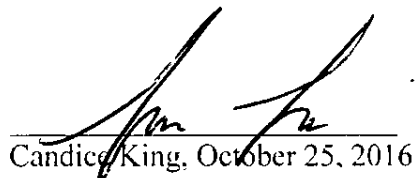

MEMBER Candice King:

A handwritten signature, appearing to be "Candice King", is written over a solid horizontal line. The signature is in black ink and is somewhat stylized.
