3. To purchase or otherwise acquire, undertake, carry on, improve, or develop, all or any of the business, good will, rights, assets, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or corporation carrying on a motel or hotel business or any kind or type of business of a similar nature to that which this limited liability company is authorized to carry on, pursuant to the provisions of these Articles; and to hold, utilize, and in any manner dispose of the rights and property so acquired.

This limited liability company shall exist for a perpetual period of time unless dissolved in a manner provided by law, or as provided in an Operating Agreement adopted by the members.

ARTICLE X LIMITATION OF LIABILITY; INDEMNIFICATION

(a) Limited Liability. Except as otherwise provided by the Florida Revised Limited Liability Company Act (the "Act"), the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the company, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the company, and the members, including any member who is a manager, shall not be obligated personally for any debt, obligation, or liability of the company solely by reason of being a member or a manager. The failure of the company to observe any formalities or requirements relating to the exercise of its powers or the management of its business or affairs under these Articles of Organization or the Act shall not be grounds for imposing personal liability on the member for any debts, liabilities, or obligations of the company. Except as otherwise expressly required by law, the members, in the member's capacity as members, shall have no liability in excess of (a) the amount of the member's net capital contributions, (b) the member's share of any assets and undistributed profits of the company, and (c) the amount of any distributions required to be returned under the Florida Revised Limited Liability Company Act.

The company shall not pay for any insurance covering liability of the member, the manager, or their agents, affiliates, heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns for actions or omissions for which indemnification is not permitted under these Articles of Organization; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Agreement shall preclude the company from purchasing and paying for those types of insurance, including extended coverage liability and casualty and workers' compensation, as would be customary for any person owning, managing, and/or operating comparable property and engaged in a similar business, or from naming the member, the manager, and any of the member's and manager's agents, affiliates, heirs, legal representatives, successors, or assigns or any Indemnified Party as additional insured parties under the agreement.

(c) Nonexclusive Right. The provisions of this Article X shall be in addition to and not in limitation of any other rights of indemnification and reimbursement or limitations of liability to which an Indemnified Party may be entitled under the Act, common law, or otherwise. Notwithstanding any repeal of this Article X or other amendment hereof, its provisions shall be binding upon the company (subject only to the exceptions above set forth) as to any claim, loss, expense, liability, action, or damage due to or arising out of matters that occur during or relate to the period prior to any repeal or amendment of this Article X.
