Dissolution. In the event of dissolution or final liquidation of the Company, neither the property of the Company nor proceeds thereof may be distributed or divided among the employees or officers of the Company or inure to the benefit of an individual. Upon the dissolution of the Company, assets shall be distributed to: (i) Its sole Member, if it then exists as a public charity under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and if it does not exist, to Education Principle Foundation, a Delaware non-profit corporation, if it then exists as an organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; (ii) if neither the sole Member nor Education Principle Foundation exist in that capacity, then the assets shall be distributed as directed by the member (or its successor) so long as it is organized and operated for charitable purposes under tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; or (iii) in the unlikely event a qualifying organization cannot be found under the provisions of the immediately preceding subsections, then the remaining assets shall be distributed to a nonprofit organization which is organized and operated as a public charity under tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code giving preference to one having purposes nearest the purposes of Education Principle Foundation.
