Regarding ANCHORED SALON & SPA LLC co-owner Kelsey Robar on 6/07/2018 fraudulently filed "Articles of Dissolution" to dissolve the business with an event effective date of 7/1/2018. I Alison Sardina (co-owner) was not aware of this filing as for this was done behind my back without my knowledge & do not give consent of such filing.

The filing of the Articles of Dissolution without my knowledge is fraudulent.

It is a third-degree felony for a party to file a fraudulent document on the records of the Florida Department of State. Section 817.155, Florida Statute (F.S.), states,

"A person may not, in any matter within the jurisdiction of the Department of State, knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal a material fact, make any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or representation, or make or use any false document, knowing the same to contain any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or entry. A person who violates this section is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083 or s. 775.084."
