ARTICLE V - TERM and CONTINUANCE OF COMPANY BUSINESS

The period of duration for the Limited Liability Company is perpetual.

Upon the consent of a majority in interest of all the remaining members, the business of the Company shall continue on the death, insanity, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of an individual member or occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the Company.

ARTICLE VI – RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER and ADMISSION OF A NEW MEMBER

The member(s) may admit to the Company one or more additional members who will participate in the profits, losses, available cash flow, and ownership of the assets of the Company on such terms as are in accordance with the company regulations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the admission of any such additional member shall require the consent of members then having a majority of the interest of the LLC.

ARTICLE VII – NATURE OF MEMBERSHIP INTEREST

The interest of each member of the Company constitutes the personal estate of that member, and may be transferred or assigned as provided in the company regulations. However, if by a majority-in-interest of the other members of the Company, the members other than the member proposing to dispose of his, her or its interest, do not approve of the proposed transfer or assignment by written consent required under the company regulations, the transferee of the interest shall have no right to participate in the management of the business and affairs of the Company or to become a member. The transferee shall be entitled to receive only the share of profits or other compensation by way of income and the return of contributions to which that member would otherwise be entitled and shall hold only an economic assignee interest.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have executed these Articles of Organization.

Dated this 4th day of August, 2017.
