- (d) In general, to have and exercise all powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon professional limited liability companies and professional service corporations, and to do any and all things hereinabove set forth to the same extent as a natural person might or could do.

ARTICLE V – Management

The professional limited liability company shall be managed by a manager or managers, and the names and addresses of the manager or managers of the professional limited liability company shall be maintained by the professional limited liability company and kept with its business records. The name and address of the initial manager are: James Holliday, II, 15316 Cortez Blvd., Brooksville, FL 34613.

ARTICLE VI - Membership Units

The total number of membership units authorized to be issued by the professional limited liability company shall be 10,000 units, par value $.01. Each of the said units shall entitle the holder thereof to one (1) vote at any meeting of the members. All or any part of said units may be paid for in cash, in property, or in labor or services at a fair valuation to be fixed by the manager or managers of the professional limited liability company at a meeting called for such purposes. All membership units then issued shall be paid for and shall be nonassessable.

ARTICLE VII - Members

The name and address of each member of the professional limited liability company shall be maintained by the professional limited liability company and kept with its business records.

ARTICLE VIII - Admission of Additional Members

The member or members may admit additional members in accordance with the operating agreement pertaining to the Company. However, no individual may be admitted as a member unless such individual is duly licensed and otherwise legally authorized to render legal services as an attorney at law, and no entity may be admitted as a member unless such entity is a professional service corporation or a professional limited liability company that is duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render legal services through one or more duly licensed attorneys at law.

ARTICLE IX - Ownership

The ownership interest of each member of the professional limited liability company shall be in accordance with the membership or ownership certificates issued by the professional limited liability company. No member of the professional limited liability company shall enter into any type of agreement vesting another individual or entity with the authority to exercise any of that member’s voting rights or powers in the professional limited liability company.
