ARTICLE XII - Indemnification:

Each individual or entity who is or was a Manager, Officer, or Member of the Company (and the heirs, executor, personal representatives, administrators, successors or assigns of such individual or entity) who was or is made a party to, or is involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Manager or Member of the Company ("Indemnatee"), shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. In addition to the indemnification conferred in this Article, the Indemnatee shall also be entitled to have paid directly by the Company the expenses, including attorney fees and costs, reasonably incurred by the Indemnatee in defending any such proceeding against such Indemnatee, whether by reason of the Indemnatee's former or present capacity as a member, manager or officer of the Company, in advance of its final disposition to the fullest extent authorized by applicable law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended. The rights and authority conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Articles of Organization or Operating Agreement of the Company, agreement, vote of Members or otherwise. Any repeal or amendment of this Article by the Members of the Company shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a member or officer existing at the time of such repeal or amendment.

ARTICLE XIII - Prohibition on Private Inurement

No part of the net earnings of the Company will inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to any person, except that the Company will be authorized and empowered (a) to pay reasonable compensation to a person or entity for services rendered to it, (b) to make distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the Company to its members, each of which is an organization that is exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(3), and (c) to contract with other organizations to acquire, develop, build and maintain for its own account, or finance such acquisition, development or building, housing that meets the safe harbor guidelines of Rev.Proc. 96-32, any such contract(s) will be negotiated at arm's length and the Company will determine that it is paying no more than fair market by obtaining an independent appraisal from a licensed real estate appraiser with experience in housing that meets such safe harbor guidelines. No substantial part of the activities of the Company will be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise the attempting to influence legislation, and the Company will not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Organization, the Company will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization that is exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(3), or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Code Section 170(c)(2) (or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent law).

ARTICLE XIV - Liquidating Distributions

Upon the dissolution of the Company, its assets that remain after the paying of, or the reserving for the payment of, all debts, obligations, liabilities, costs, and expenses of the Company will be distributed to (a) its members, each of which will be an organization exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(3), (b) one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or (c) the federal, a state, or a local government for a public purpose. Any assets that are not disposed of pursuant to the preceding sentence will be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction for the county in which the principal office of the Company is then located, exclusively for exempt purposes within the meaning of Code Section 501(c)(3) or to organizations that are organized and operated exclusively for exempt purposes within the meaning of Code Section 501(c)(3), as the court determines.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Member has executed these Articles of Organization as of this 14th day of August, 2017 and attests that in accordance with section 605.0203(1)(b), Florida Statutes, the execution of this document constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated herein are true. I am aware that any false information submitted in a document to the Department of State constitutes a third degree felony as provided for in section 817.155, Florida Statutes.
