ARTICLE VI

The right, if given, of the members of the Limited Liability Company to continue the business on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the Limited Liability Company shall be as provided for in the written Operating Agreement and Regulations. In the failure to make such provision in the company Operating Agreement and Regulations of the Company then and in that event Florida Statutes §605.0105 - 605.0108, shall apply.

ARTICLE VII

This Company shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted under and in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be joined as a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she, is or was manager, managing member, or officer of this Company, or is or was serving at the request of Company as a manager, member, director, officer, trustee, employee or agent of or in any other capacity with another company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding.

Expenses (including attorney's fees) incurred by an member, manager or officer in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative proceeding shall be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking (secured or unsecured as may be determined by the Company) by or on behalf of such member, manager or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company as authorized in this Article. Such expenses (including attorneys fees) incurred by other employees and agents shall also be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Company deems appropriate.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any member, manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that the actions, or omissions to act, of such member, manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute any of the following:

- (a) A violation of criminal law, unless the member, manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful.
- (b) A transaction from which the member, manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent derived an improper personal benefit
- (c) in the case of a manager or managing member, a circumstance under which the Liability provisions of section 605.0403 of the Florida Statutes are applicable.
- (d) Willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the limited liability company in a proceeding by or in the right of the limited liability company to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of a member.

The indemnification provided by this Article shall continue as to an indemnified person who has ceased to be a member, manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure

ARTICLE VI

The right, if given, of the members of the Limited Liability Company to continue the business on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the Limited Liability Company shall be as provided for in the written Operating Agreement and Regulations. In the failure to make such provision in the company Operating Agreement and Regulations of the Company then and in that event Florida Statutes §605.0105 - 605.0108, shall apply.

ARTICLE VII

This Company shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted under and in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be joined as a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she, is or was manager, managing member, or officer of this Company, or is or was serving at the request of Company as a manager, member, director, officer, trustee, employee or agent of or in any other capacity with another company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding.

Expenses (including attorney's fees) incurred by an member, manager or officer in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative proceeding shall be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking (secured or unsecured as may be determined by the Company) by or on behalf of such member, manager or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company as authorized in this Article. Such expenses (including attorneys fees) incurred by other employees and agents shall also be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Company deems appropriate.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any member, manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that the actions, or omissions to act, of such member, manager, managing member, officer, employee, or agent were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute any of the following:
