Re: Rosen Corporation Name Changes

Dear Karon:

We spoke by telephone on June 22, 2000. I explained that in May we had filed Articles of Amendment changing the names of nine Tamar corporations in which we generally substituted the name "Rosen" for "Tamar". Two of the nine corporate name changes were as follows:

- Tamar Convention Hotel, Inc. was changed to Rosen Convention, Inc.
- Tamar Plaza, Inc. was changed to Rosen Plaza, Inc.

These name changes were to take effect on July 1, 2000.

Because of some internal confusion with these name changes, my client decided to again change the names of Rosen Convention, Inc. and Rosen Plaza, Inc. Specifically, Rosen Plaza, Inc. will now be known as Rosen 9000, Inc. and Rosen Convention, Inc. will now be known as Rosen Plaza, Inc. Therefore, enclosed for filing are two Articles of Amendment with respect to these two name changes, together with this firm's check in the amount of $70.00 for the filing fees. Also enclosed are copies of the Articles which we request be stamped and returned to us in the pre-addressed, stamped envelope provided.

We discussed two specific issues. First, because of the short time period during which these consecutive name changes are occurring, I have added a background to these documents to eliminate any confusion in the public records of the Division of Corporations.

Second, there is a potential for confusion because as of July 1, 2000, there will be a "Rosen Plaza, Inc." in existence (which was formerly known as Tamar Plaza, Inc.). However, with these new name changes, Rosen Convention, Inc. will now be known as Rosen Plaza, Inc. Therefore, the Articles of Amendment for Rosen Plaza, Inc. (changing its name to Rosen 9000, Inc.) must be filed first so that the name "Rosen Plaza, Inc." becomes available.

It is my understanding that you are willing to assist us in walking these two Articles of Amendment through the filing process to ensure that the Articles of Amendment for Rosen Plaza, Inc. is filed before the Articles of Amendment for Rosen Convention, Inc. This should eliminate any confusion.

Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions or comments regarding the filing of these Articles. Thanks for your help.

Very truly yours,

Kevin K. Smith
