ARTICLE SIX

The Company is organized for the purpose of transacting any and all lawful business, both within and without the State of Florida. Additionally, the general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted shall be:

(a) To conduct, maintain, operate, and to do business in any activity within the purpose for which a limited liability company may be organized under the Florida Limited Liability Company Act.

(b) To own real and personal property, and to use, operate, maintain, remodel, improve, and generally deal with and in the same, and any appurtenances convenient, desirable, or necessary in the conduct and operation of the lawful business of the Company.

(c) To do all and everything necessary or proper for the accomplishment of the objects and purposes of the Company, as determined by the Company's members in their discretion and consistent with the laws of the State of Florida, or as necessary or incidental to the protection and benefit of the Company, and in general to carry out any lawful business, regardless of whether such business is similar in nature to the objects as set forth herein, and in any part of the world, either as principal, agent, contractor, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with any other persons, firm, associations, corporation, or other entities, both within and without the State of Florida, to the same extent as natural persons lawfully might or could do, insofar as acts may be permitted to be done by a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE SEVEN

Additional members may be admitted, at such times and on such terms and conditions, as are consistent with the requirements of the Operating Agreement of the Company.

ARTICLE EIGHT

The remaining members of the Company may continue the business of the Company upon the termination of membership of a member in the Company (by reason of death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event terminating membership in the Company) upon unanimous agreement in accordance with the Operating Agreement of the Company.

ARTICLE NINE

The Company shall have all of the powers enumerated in the Florida Revised Limited Liability Company Act, Chapter 605, Florida Statutes, as such chapter presently exists or may hereafter be amended.
