Dear Mr. O'Keefe,

The couple filing this application to register an LLC is on active duty (Navy) in California. They contacted me to help with the filing process since they were out of state. The first filing contained an error citing F.S. 608 instead of F.S. 605. They received the correction notice and it was forwarded to California.

When they notified me about the correction needed, I corrected the Statute and ask them to forward the correction notice. Since I did not receive it by December 12th, I called in and was told to just mail the corrected forms without the notice, so I did. No changes were made as of January 10th when I spoke with you. On January 11th I received the original correction letter and included it with another copy of the corrected forms.

Thanks in Advance for your cooperation,

James R. Anderson, Jr.
