ARTICLE VII
Purpose and Nature of Business

It is intended that the Limited Liability Company shall be a Professional Limited Liability Company under the provisions of Chapter 621 of the Florida Statutes. The general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted is as follows:

(a) To transact any lawful business and to exercise all powers granted to limited liability companies by the laws of the State of Florida, including, but not limited to, rendering professional medical services, and to do all things in connection therewith that are customarily done by licensed osteopathic physicians under laws of the State of Florida. No professional services shall be rendered by the Limited Liability Company, except through its officers, employees or agents who are duly certified, registered, licensed, or otherwise legally authorized to render such professional services within the State of Florida; and

(b) To do all and everything necessary and proper for the accomplishment of the objects necessary or incidental to the benefit and protection of the Limited Liability Company, and in general, either alone or in association with other corporations, firms, partnerships, or individuals, to carry on any lawful pursuit necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of the purposes or the attainment of the objectives or the furtherance of such purposes or objects of the Limited Liability Company.

The foregoing paragraphs shall be construed as enumerating both objects and purposes of the Limited Liability Company; and it is hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumeration of specific purposes shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the purposes of the Limited Liability Company otherwise permitted by law. The Limited Liability Company is formed for the purpose of conducting and undertaking, and shall have the power to conduct and undertake, any and all activities authorized under the Florida Revised Limited Liability Company Act, Chapter 605, Florida Statutes, and the Florida Professional Service Corporation and Limited Liability Company Act, Chapter 621, Florida Statutes. The Limited Liability Company may engage in any lawful activity or business permitted under the laws of the United States and the State of Florida.

ARTICLE VIII
Membership Restrictions

The Limited Liability Company may not issue any of its membership interests to anyone other than a professional corporation, a professional limited liability company, or an individual who is duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same specific professional services as those for which the Limited Liability Company is organized; and only in accordance with any operating agreement of the Limited Liability Company, as the same may be amended from time to time. No member of the Limited Liability Company may sell or transfer ownership interest in the Limited Liability Company except to another professional corporation, professional limited liability company, or individual, each of which must be eligible to be a member of the Limited Liability Company. No member of the Limited Liability Company shall enter into any type of agreement vesting another person with the authority to exercise any of that member's voting power in the Limited Liability Company.

If any member, manager, officer, agent, or employee of the Limited Liability Company who has been rendering professional services becomes legally disqualified to render such professional services, or accepts employment that, pursuant to existing law, places restrictions or limitations upon that person's continued rendering of such professional services, or is otherwise restricted from rendering such professional services or owning an interest in the Limited Liability Company, that person shall sever all employment with, and financial interests in, the Limited Liability Company forthwith.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned authorized representative has executed the foregoing Articles of Organization on the 25 day of July, 2018, and in accordance with Section 605.0203(1)(b), Florida Statutes, the execution of this document constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated herein are true. I am aware that any false information submitted in a document to the Department of State constitutes a third degree felony as provided for in Section 817.155 of the Florida Statutes.
