Cover Letter

In September of 2018, I was living with Michelle Anne Geskey at 13717 Lazy Oak Drive Tampa Florida.

I was working as a carpenter and she in real estate. Michelle told me that she had set up a partnership and I began depositing my earnings into what I believed to be a joint account.

Michelle took care of the banking and bookkeeping and paid the bills.

By early 2021, I became aware of purchases by Michelle from the G2 Home Team LLC for personal and real estate business purposes.

Even though Michelle made deposits as well, our mission of property management and home improvements was lost. Since I had no access to records or banking, I stopped depositing money and moved out in the spring of 2021.

I found the original operating document from January 1, 2019 when Michelle finally added my name to the LLC by forging my signature. I was aware Michelle had done that on my personal checking account as well.

Michelle has closed the G2 Home Team LLC bank account, and has recently purchased a Mercedes Van and registered it to G2 Home Team LLC or Michelle Anne Geskey.

I believe that Michelle has all but officially dissolved the alleged partnership and that I must protect myself from any further liabilities since there has been no business and very little contact with her for six months.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Michelle Anne Geskey". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large loop at the beginning and a long, sweeping tail.

G2 Home Team, LLC is submitting this Statement of Revocation of Dissolution to be processed as soon as possible. The company is a viable working company with assets, liabilities and a bank account in good standing.

Richard P. Gagner had no authorization to apply for dissolution by the LLC.

Attached please find a copy of Paragraph 17 of the Operating Agreement of the LLC detailing requirements for dissolution.
