ARTICLE V.

The Company is organized for the following purposes:

- A. To establish a single-specialty independent practice association for certain dermatologic physicians duly licensed under the laws of the State of Florida.
- B. To engage in every aspect and phase of the practice of dermatologic medicine and the performance of services ancillary thereto that are customarily done by licensed physicians under the laws of the State of Florida and in accordance with Chapter 621, Florida Statutes.
- C. To render professional services in connection with the practice of dermatologic medicine by and through its members, officers, employees, and agents who are duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render such professional services within the State of Florida.
- D. To negotiate and enter into third party payor contracts as a single entity for and on behalf of its members.
- E. To invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds and any other types of investments permitted by law.
- F. To own real and personal property necessary for the rendering of professional services authorized under these Articles of Organization.
- G. To engage in no other business.
- H. To do all and everything necessary, proper, advisable, or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the above described purposes, or the attainment of any of the objects or the furtherance of any of the purposes enumerated in these Articles of Organization, or any amendment thereof, either alone or in association with others, including matters incidental or pertaining to, or connected with such purposes or the attainment of the objects or the furtherance of such purposes, provided the same shall not be inconsistent with the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE VI.

Individual members must be licensed to practice medicine in the State of Florida. The shareholders of any member that is a professional service corporation and the members of any member that is a professional limited liability company must each be licensed to practice medicine in the State of Florida. Existing members shall have the right to admit new members by consent of members representing all of the ownership interests in the Company. Contributions required of new members shall be determined as of the time of admission to the Company in accordance with the Operating Agreement.

A member's interest in the Company may not be sold or otherwise transferred except to a person licensed to practice medicine in the State of Florida, with written consent of members representing all of the ownership interests in the Company and otherwise in accordance with the Operating Agreement of the Company.

ARTICLE VII.

The Company shall have perpetual existence commencing on the date these Articles of Organization are filed with the State of Florida Department of State.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Company will be a Manager-Managed Professional Limited Liability Company.

The undersigned, being one of the initial members of the Company, hereby certifies that the foregoing constitutes the Articles of Organization of Phillips Dermatology and Dermatologic Surgery, PLLC.

In witness whereof, the undersigned has set her hand and seal this 25th day of September, 2018.

I am the member submitting these Articles of Organization and affirm the facts stated herein are true. I am aware that any false information submitted in a document to the Department of State constitutes a third-degree felony as provided for in s.817.155, F.S. I understand the requirement to file an annual report between January 1st and May 1st in the calendar year following formation of the LLC and every year thereafter to maintain "active" status.
