Re: Madison Green Acres, LLC

Gentlemen:

In 2017 I formed an LLC named Madison Green Acres, LLC. This company has been inactive and has no assets.. I have several corporations and the LLC and somehow I missed the payment on the renewal. I did not file late because it would require a payment that was not worth for a company that had no assets. I waited until after September 30, 2018 to form a new LLC with the same name. The other company had been dissolved. The new LLC was not approved because I was told that there was another company with the same name. I called the Department of State because I knew the other company had been dissolved and was told that you keep the dissolved company for a year. Since I am the owner of the old dissolved company and the new company it seems simpler to be able to use the same name and not have to make a slight change in the name. I am enclosing all the information that shows I am the owner of the old and the new and also the correspondence from the state.

Please call if you have any questions in connection with this matter.

Very truly yours,

Mirtha Guerra Aguirre
