above professional services,

(e) to borrow money and contract debts when necessary for the transaction of its business or for the exercise of its rights, privileges or franchises, or for other lawful purposes; to issue promissory notes and other obligations and evidences of indebtedness payable at a specified time or times and secured by mortgages or otherwise; and

(f) in general, to have and exercise all powers conferred by the laws of Florida upon professional limited liability companies, and to do any and all things hereinabove set forth to the same extent as a natural person might or could do.

ARTICLE V Members Must Be Licensed Professionals

(a) Persons who have interests in the capital of the Company are referred to herein as "Members." In accordance with the applicable provisions of Chapter 621, Florida Statutes, each Member of the Company must be a professional corporation, a professional limited liability company, or a natural person who is duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render medical services. Any person not meeting the standards set forth in the foregoing sentence (a "Disqualified Person") is hereby deemed not qualified to own an interest in the capital of the Company and may not be a Member.

(b) In the event a Member becomes a Disqualified Person, the Disqualified Person's ownership interests in the Company are redeemed and shall be deemed to have been redeemed and cancelled effective as of the date of occurrence of the event which caused such Disqualified Person to be disqualified (the "Disqualification Event"). No ownership interests held by the Disqualified Person shall be considered outstanding upon and after the date of the Disqualification Event, the Disqualified Person shall not be entitled to vote or participate in any Company or Member action and shall cease to be a Member, manager, employee, officer, or agent of the Company immediately effective as of the Disqualification Event, and the sole right and entitlement of the Disqualified Person shall be to receive redemption consideration for the interests in the Company held by the Disqualified Person. The Disqualification Events, the redemption consideration to be paid, and the terms of payment shall be as set forth in the operating agreement of the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) above, if the sole Member of this Company is or becomes a Disqualified Person, then and in that event the Company shall promptly amend these Articles or take such other legal action as shall be necessary or appropriate to cause the Company to change its business purpose from the rendering of professional services to provide for any other lawful purpose by amending these Articles in the manner specified herein and under applicable law, and the Company shall be removed from the provisions of Chapter 621, Florida Statutes, including, but not limited to, the right to practice a profession.

ARTICLE VI
Management

The Company is a manager-managed professional limited liability company. The name and street address of the initial manager of the Company shall be Ernest H. McDowell, D.D.S., 1433 Court Street, Clearwater, Florida 33756.

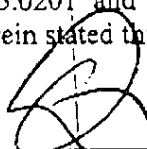

ARTICLE VII
Operating Agreement

The power to adopt the operating agreement of the Company, to alter, amend or repeal the operating agreement of the Company, or to adopt a new operating agreement, shall be vested in the Members of the Company. The operating agreement of the Company shall be for the government of the Company and may contain any provisions or requirements for the management or conduct of the affairs and business of the Company, provided the same are not inconsistent with the provisions of these Articles or contrary to the laws of the State of Florida or of the United States.

ARTICLE VIII
Amendment to Articles of Organization

The Company reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon the members herein are subject to this reservation.

The undersigned, pursuant to Sections 605.0201 and 621.051, Florida Statutes, has executed these Articles for the uses and purposes herein stated this 11th day of March, 2019.
