Page 3ARTICLE 10 - PROHIBITIONS

The Company shall not invest or issue securities pursuant to an investment contract. In the preceding sentence, "investment contract" shall mean an agreement in which members of the Company invest and expect to make a profit from the entrepreneurial and managerial efforts of others or any other meaning pursuant to the federal Securities Act of 1933, Investment Company Act of 1940 or regulations promulgated thereunder by the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company shall not make, nor propose to make, a public offering of its securities or have more than one hundred Members of the Company. The Company shall not own or hold investment securities valued at forty percent of the value of its assets. In the preceding sentence, "investment securities" shall mean all securities except government securities, securities issued by employees' securities and securities issued by majority-owned subsidiaries of the owner which are not investment companies and are not relying on the exception from the definition of investment company as described in paragraph (1) or (7) of subsection (c) of Section 3(a)(10)(C) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 or regulations promulgated thereunder by the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company shall not authorize a prohibited transaction between the Company and a disqualified person, as such terms are defined in Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code or regulations promulgated thereunder by the Internal Revenue Service.

ARTICLE 11 - INDEMNIFICATION

The Company shall indemnify managers and/or members of the Company who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the managers and/or members was a party because the managers and/or members is or was a manager and/or member of the Company against reasonable attorney fees and expenses incurred by the managers and/or members in connection with the proceeding. The Company may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a member, manager, employee or agent of the Company against liability if authorized in the specific case after determination, in the manner required by the member(s), that indemnification of the member, manager, employee or agent, as the case may be, is permissible in the circumstances because the member, manager, employee or agent has met the standard of conduct set forth by the member(s). The indemnification and advancement of attorney fees and expenses for managers, employees and agents of the Company shall apply when such persons are serving at the Company's request while a member, manager, employee or agent of the Company, as the case may be, as a member, manager, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic Company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or
