Good afternoon! You can send me a name release letter via e-mail. Once I have that release letter than I can file your new one of the same name. Below is a template for the name release letter you can use.

Your name release letter needs to include the following:

Your Name.

Business name and document number of the dissolved entity.

Tracking number or name of the newly filed business entity.

Please make sure to include a statement insuring that you have no intentions on reinstating the old business entity. As well as you would like to push through with the new filling.
