Subject: Naming conflict resolution - Hughes Handy Solutions, LLC

EMAIL RECEIVED FROM EXTERNAL SOURCE

DEAR MS. CULLIGAN,

I am writing to you today, per my telephone conversation with a lovely lady (name unknown) yesterday.

I am the former President of Hughes Handy Solutions, LLC – EIN 82-1203234, document #L17000070980. We had created this LLC as an S-Corp, partnership between my husband Remer Anthony Hughes and myself.

Our new tax accountant has recommended that, due to the nature, activity, and size of our business we dissolve our original LLC and re-establish as a different structure (part of which being a C-Corp) as well as different ownership titles/%.

I filed for the dissolution of our original LLC (EIN 82-1203234/Doc #L17000070980) and received notification that this was done. I then filed for a new LLC with the same name, Hughes Handy Solutions, LLC, and received notification (Letter #200227150238-700341138227) stating that we could not use that name due to a 'name conflict'.

As (former) owner of the previous Hughes Handy Solutions, LLC name I am stating that EIN/Doc # will not be re-activated and the name can be re-issued effective immediately.

Our new company with Doc #W20000021473 would like to use the name Hughes Handy Solutions, LLC and would like to get a new EIN issued as soon as possible.

Please let me know if this is sufficient to clear up the naming conflict and how we will know if/when the new company may get an EIN issued.

Best Regards,

Alicia Kinikia Kaponu Hughes
