And you can but you will need to send me a name release letter like I stated in my previous email. I will include a template that you can use to create this name release letter. Without it I cannot process the new filing as is. So again, create this name letter and send it back to me via email and then I will get the new filing under this name.

Your name release letter needs to include the following:

Your Name.

Business name and document number of the dissolved entity.

Tracking number or name of the newly filed business entity.

Please make sure to include a statement insuring that you have no intentions on reinstating the old business entity. As well as you would like to push through with the new filling.

Example:

I, (Your name) am the owner of the business (Dissolved Entity), which I have no intentions of reinstating. I would like to release the name for my newly filed business entity (Business name, Tracking number) to myself.
