ARTICLE VI
CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

The members may contribute capital to the Company in the manner prescribed by the Company’s written operating agreement executed by all members, as it may be amended from time to time.

ARTICLE VII

Notwithstanding any oral or written agreement to the contrary, a person or entity who is a prospective member of the Company does not attain status as a member unless the Company has issued a valid equity unit certificate in the name of the member that is signed by the Company's manager or other duly authorized representative. The certificate need not be sealed. As long as the Company has more than one member, the remedy of foreclosure or charging order on a judgment debtor's interest in the limited liability company or against rights to distribution from the limited liability company is not available, and if any attempt to foreclose on a member's interest is successful, and the creditor is not a member of the Company or a party controlled or under the direction of a member of the Company, the Company shall immediately purchase the foreclosed interest for $1.00. If any attempt to enforce a charging order is successful, and the creditor is not a member of the Company or a party controlled or under the direction of a member of the Company, the Company shall no longer issue distributions of profits or losses to the membership interest effected by such an order, until the effect of such an order is removed. Such distributions of profit and losses which would normally be issued to such membership interest effected by a charging order, but are withheld, shall be distributed to the remaining membership interest on a pro rata basis. Nothing in this section should be construed to reduce member's debtor rights under the law.

ARTICLE IX
