ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION OF LONGLEAF LANDING, L.L.C.

The undersigned have elected to form a limited liability company under the laws of the State of Florida, Florida Statutes Chapter 605, providing for the formation, rights, privileges, and immunities of limited liability companies for profit. The undersigned further declare that the following Articles shall be the Charter and authority for the conduct of business of such limited liability company.

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of the limited liability company shall be LONGLEAF LANDING, L.L.C., and its principal place of business shall be in the City of Pensacola, Escambia County, State of Florida, but it shall have the power and authority to establish branch offices at such place or places as may be designated by the members.

ARTICLE II PURPOSES AND POWERS

The general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted and which the limited liability company is authorized to transact, in addition to those authorized by the laws of the State of Florida, and the powers of the limited liability company, shall be as follows:

1. The primary purpose of the company shall be to receive contributions of property from the its members, to hold such property for business ventures and investment, and to reinvest the income derived from the operation or sale of all or any part of the property for investment purposes in stock, bonds, securities, life insurance contracts, real estate or any other property, all in such manner as the Manager, in the Manager's sole discretion, determine in good faith to be for the mutual benefit and for the general furtherance of the financial interests of the Members. Additionally, the purpose is to consolidate the management of the property; to avoid the division of the property in order to promote the greater sales potential of the property; to avoid potential expensive litigation and disputes over the property by providing mechanisms which will provide for management and procedures to resolve disputes; to provide mechanisms which will restrict the potential of any Member to transfer his interests in the Company; and to establish an investment policy for the Company which encourages investments primarily for the growth of the value of the assets of the Company. The Company may purchase any real or personal property, make any investment, and engage in any joint venture, general partnership, limited partnership, or other business activity proposed by the Manager and not prohibited by law.

2. To engage in any activity or business authorized by Florida law.

3. In general, to carry on any and all incidental business; to have and exercise all the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida, and to do any and all things herein set forth to the same extent as a natural person might or could do.

4. To purchase or otherwise acquire, undertake, carry on, improve, or develop, all or any of the business, good will, rights, assets, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or corporation carrying on any kind of business of a similar nature to that which this limited liability company is authorized to carry on, pursuant to the provisions of the Articles; and to hold, utilize, and in any manner dispose of the rights and property so acquired.

5. To enter into and make all necessary contracts for its business with any person, entity, partnership, association, corporation, domestic or foreign, or of any domestic or foreign state, government, or governmental authority, or of any political or administrative subdivision, or department thereof, and to perform and carry out, assign, cancel, or rescind any of such contracts.

6. To exercise all or any of the limited liability company powers, and to carry out all or any of the purposes, enumerated herein otherwise granted or permitted by law, while acting as agent, nominee, or attorney-in-fact for any persons or corporations, and perform any service under contract or otherwise for any corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, firm, syndicate, individual, or other entity, and in such capacity or under such arrangement develop, improve, stabilize, strengthen, or extend the property and commercial interest thereof, and to aid, assist, or participate in any lawful enterprise in connection therewith or incidental to such agency, representation, or service, and to render any other service or assistance insofar as it lawfully may under the laws of the State of Florida, providing for the formation, rights, privileges, and immunities of limited liability companies for profit.

7. To do everything necessary, proper, advisable, or convenient for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, or the attainment of any of the objects, or the furtherance of any of the powers herein set forth, either alone or in association with others incidental or pertaining to, or going out of, or connected with its business or powers, provided the same shall not be inconsistent with the laws of the State of Florida.

8. The several clauses contained in this statement of the general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted shall be construed as both purposes and powers of this limited liability company, and statements contained in each clause shall, except as otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause. They shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.

Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed as authorizing or permitting, or purporting to authorize or permit the limited liability company to carry on any business, exercise any power, or do any act which a limited liability company may not, under the laws of the State of Florida, lawfully carry on, exercise, or do.

ARTICLE III LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY POWERS

All limited liability company powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of this limited liability company shall be managed under the direction of, the manager(s) of this limited liability company. This article may be amended from time to time in the
