Section 1.09 Additional Contributions

The Operating Agreement specifies the times and amounts of additional contributions to the Company.

Section 1.10 Additional Members

The Company has the right to admit additional Members to the Company under the terms and conditions of the Company's Operating Agreement. Any Member who is later admitted as a Member of the Company will have all of the rights and obligations of an original Member under the Operating Agreement. Any transferee of a Member's Interests in the Company must be treated as an Assignee until that transferee is admitted as an Additional or Substitute Member, if ever, under the Operating Agreement.

Section 1.11 Business Continuation

If a Company Member's membership in the Company is terminated by an event, the remaining Members and Managers of the Company have the right to continue the Company's business under the terms of the Operating Agreement. A terminating event may include the Member's death, disability, retirement, resignation, withdrawal, expulsion, or bankruptcy. If the remaining Members and Managers fail to continue the Company's business according to the terms of the Operating Agreement, the Company must be dissolved and liquidated under the Act and the Operating Agreement.

Section 1.12 Operating Agreement and Authority

To the extent not expressly required by and provided for in the Act, the manner in which the Company conducts its business and affairs, the duties and authority of its Members and

Managers, and the rights and obligations of its Members and Managers must be set forth in the Operating Agreement adopted by the initial Members and Managers of the Company. This Operating Agreement may be amended from time to time according to its provisions.

Section 1.13 Management

The Company's Managers will manage the Company's business. The Managers have exclusive authority to act for the Company in all matters. The authorities and duties of the Managers are set forth in the Operating Agreement. The names and addresses of the initial Managers are:

Edgar Joseph Guzman
