WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN 88-1276152. This EIN will identify you, your business account, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

Taxpayers request an EIN for their business. Some taxpayers request an EIN because another person has stolen their identity and are operating a business using their information. If you did not apply for this EIN, please contact us at the phone number on the top of this notice.

When filing tax documents, making payments, or replying to any related correspondence, it is very important that you use your EIN and complete name and address exactly as shown above. Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information on your account, or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If the information is not correct as shown above, please make the correction using the attached tear-off stub and return it to us.

Based on the information received from you or your representative, you must file the following forms by the dates shown.

Form 1065

02/15/2020

If you have questions about the forms or the deadlines shown, you can call us at the phone number or write to us at the address shown at the top of this notice. If you need help in determining your annual accounting period (tax year), see Publication 582, Accounting Periods And Methods.

We assigned you a tax classification (corporation, partnership, estate, trust, S-M, etc.) based on information obtained from you or your representative. It is not a legal determination of your tax classification, and is not binding on the IRS. If you want a legal determination of your tax classification, you may request a private letter ruling from the IRS under the guidelines in Revenue Procedure 2010-1, 2010-1 IRB 1 (as superseding Revenue Procedure for the year at issue). Note: Certain tax classification elections can be requested by filing Form 8872, Entity Classification Election. See Form 8872 and its instructions for additional information.

A limited liability company (LLC) may file Form 990, Form 990-Election, and elect to be classified as an association taxable as a corporation. If the LLC is eligible to be treated as a corporation that meets certain tests and if it will be electing S corporation status, it must timely file Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation. The LLC will be treated as a corporation as of the effective date of the S corporation election and must not need to file Form 990.
