ARTICLE VI.

Management.

(A) Management of the Company's business and affairs shall be vested in the members.

(B) The Company shall indemnify against any liability incurred in any proceeding in which any individual or entity is made a party to the proceeding because he, she or it is or was a Member if:

- (1) he, she or it acted and conducted himself in good faith;
- (2) he, she or it reasonably believed:
 - (a) in the case of conduct in his, her or its official capacity, that such conduct was in the best interest of the Company; or
 - (b) in all other cases, that his, her or its conduct was, at least, not opposed to the best interests of the Company; and

- (iii) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification.

The Company shall indemnify a Member of the Company who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any proceeding to which he, she or it was a party, against reasonable expenses incurred by him, her or it in connection with the proceeding.

A Member who is or was a party to a proceeding as described in this section may apply for indemnification to the court conducting such proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction.

ARTICLE VIII.

Instruments and Documents Providing for the Acquisition, Mortgage, or Disposition of Property. Instruments and documents providing for the acquisition, mortgage, or disposition of property of the Company shall be valid and binding upon the Company only if they are executed by the Members; provided, however, the Members may, in accordance with these Articles of Organization and the Operating Agreement of the Company, elect one Member to execute such documents.

ARTICLE IX.

Meetings of the Members. Annual and special meetings of the Members shall be held at such time as may be stated or fixed in accordance with the Operating Agreement of the Company, but in no event less than every thirteen months. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles of Organization or the Operating Agreement, a majority of the Members, by capital account, entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum at the meeting of Members. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the Members, by capital account, represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the Members, unless the vote of a greater proportion or number or voting by classes is required by these Articles of Organization or the Operating Agreement. If a quorum is not represented at any meeting of the Members, such meeting may be adjourned for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days at any one adjournment.

ARTICLE XI.

Action by Members without a Meeting. Unless the Operating Agreement provides otherwise, any action required by law, the Operating Agreement, or the Articles of Organization of the Company to be taken at any annual or special meeting of Members of the Company, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such Members, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice, and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the Members, by capital account, having not less than a minimum interest in the Company that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all Members entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. If any class of Members is entitled to vote thereon as a class, such written consent shall be required of the Members, by capital account, of each class of Members entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

Liability of Members.

- (A) A Member of the Company is liable to the Company for:
- (1) the difference between the amount of the Member's contributions to capital which have been actually made and the amount, if any, which is stated in these Articles of Organization or a contract to which such Member is a party and which obligates such Member to the contribution; and

ARTICLE XIII.

Transferability of Member's Interest and Withdrawal. Except as limited in accordance with Article V, above, the interests of the Members of the Company may be transferred or assigned as provided in the Operating Agreement or, in the absence thereof, without limitation; provided, however, the transferee or assignee of such Member shall have no right to participate in the management of the Company or to become a Member unless the percentage of Members required by these Articles of Organization to admit a new member, without regard to the vote of the Member seeking to make the transfer or assignment, approves of the proposed transfer or assignment at a membership meeting. Unless approved in the foregoing manner, a transferee or assignee of a Member's interest shall only be entitled to receive the share of profits or other compensation by way of income and the return of the contributions to which the transferring or assigning Member would otherwise be entitled.

No Member shall be entitled to withdraw from the Company except as expressly set forth in the Operating Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Member has executed these Articles of Organization this 7th day of December, 2022.
