2. In general, to carry on the business of buying, selling, offering for sale, purchasing, managing, renting, investing in, and acquiring commercial and residential real property of every type and kind, tangible personal property of every type and kind; and securities, and intangible personal property of every type and kind, and all business incidental thereto; to have and exercise all the powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida.

3. To purchase or otherwise acquire, undertake, carry on, improve, or develop, all or any of the business, good will, rights, assets, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or corporation carrying on any kind of business or any kind or type of business of a similar nature to that which this limited liability company is authorized to carry on, pursuant to the provisions of these Articles; and to hold, utilize, and in any manner dispose of the rights and property so acquired.

5. To exercise all or any of the limited liability company powers, and to carry out all or any of the purposes, enumerated in these Articles and otherwise granted or permitted by law, while acting as agent, nominee, or attorney-in-fact for any persons or corporations, and perform any service under a franchise or contract, or otherwise for any corporation, joint stock company, association, partnership, firm, syndicate, individual, or other entity.

6. The several clauses contained in this statement of the general nature of the business or businesses to be transacted shall be construed as both purposes and powers of this limited liability company, and statements contained in each clause shall, except as otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause. They shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.

Nothing contained in these Articles shall be deemed or construed as authorizing or permitting, or purporting to authorize or permit the limited liability company to carry on any business, exercise any power, or do any act which a limited liability company may not lawfully carry on, exercise, or do under the Florida Revised Limited Liability Company Act, or under the laws of the State of Florida, or under the laws of any other governmental authority having jurisdiction over this limited liability company.

(a) Limited Liability. Except as otherwise provided by the Florida Revised Limited Liability Company Act (the "Act"), the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the company, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the company, and the members, including any member who is a manager, shall not be obligated personally for any debt, obligation, or liability of the company solely by reason of being a member or a manager. The failure of the company to observe any formalities or requirements relating to the exercise of its powers or the management of its business or affairs under these Articles of Organization or the Act shall not be grounds for imposing personal liability on the member for any debts, liabilities, or obligations of the company. Except as otherwise expressly required by law, the members, in the member's capacity as members, shall have no liability in excess of (a) the amount of the member's net capital contributions, (b) the member's share of any assets and undistributed profits of the company, and (c) the amount of any distributions required to be returned under the Florida Revised Limited Liability Company Act.

(b) Indemnification. The company (including any receiver or trustee of the company) shall, to the fullest extent provided or allowed by law, indemnify, save harmless, and pay all judgments and claims against the members and each of the company's managers or members, agents, affiliates, legal representatives, heirs, successors and transferees (each an "Indemnified Party") from, against, and in respect of any and all liability, loss, damage, and expense incurred or sustained by the Indemnified Party in connection with the business of the company or by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed in connection with the activities of the company or in dealing with third parties on behalf of the company, including costs and attorneys' fees before and at trial and at all appellate levels, whether or not suit is instituted (which attorneys' fees may be paid as incurred), and any amounts expended in the settlement of any claims of liability, loss, or damage, provided that the act or omission of the Indemnified Party does not constitute conduct involving bad faith or fraud or willful misconduct by the Indemnified Party. The company shall not pay for any insurance covering liability of the member, the manager, or their agents, affiliates, heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns for actions or omissions for which indemnification is not permitted under these Articles of Organization; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Agreement shall preclude the company from purchasing and paying for those types of insurance, including extended coverage liability and casualty and workers' compensation, as would be customary for any person owning, managing, and/or operating comparable property and engaged in a similar business, or from naming the member, the manager, and any of the member's and manager's agents, affiliates, heirs, legal representatives, successors, or assigns or any Indemnified Party as additional insured parties under the agreement.

(c) Nonexclusive Right. The provisions of this Article X shall be in addition to and not in limitation of any other rights of indemnification and reimbursement or limitations of liability to which an Indemnified Party may be entitled under the Act, common law, or otherwise. Notwithstanding any repeal of this Article X or other amendment hereof, its provisions shall be binding upon the company (subject only to the exceptions above set forth) as to any claim, loss, expense, liability, action, or damage due to or arising out of matters that occur during or relate to the period prior to any repeal or amendment of this Article X.
