ARTICLE V: Effective date, if other than the date of filing: November 10, 2023

ARTICLE VI: Purpose and Powers of the Limited Liability Company.

In addition to the powers authorized by the laws of the State of Florida for limited liability companies, the purpose of the Limited Liability Company is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which Limited Liability Companies may be organized under the Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE VII: Members

The Members of the Limited Liability Company shall be named in the Operating Agreement, and the procedure in which Members shall be admitted or removed from the Limited Liability Company shall governed by the procedure set forth in the Operating Agreement. Contributions required of new Members, if any, shall be determined as of the time of admission to the Limited Liability Company.

A Member's interest in the Limited Liability Company may not be sold or otherwise transferred except as set forth in the Operating Agreement.

On the death, retirement, resignation, removal, or the occurrence of any other event that termination the continued membership of a member in the Limited Liability Company, the remaining members shall have the right to continue the business as provided in the Operating Agreement.

Article VIII: Capital Contributions and Distributions to Owners

As set forth in the Operating Agreement, capital contributions or other contributions may be made to the Limited Liability Company by Members. Each Member's ownership percentage shall be determined in the Operating Agreement as agreed to by the Members and is not determined based on each Member's contribution to the Limited Liability Company.

Members shall be entitled to the net profits of the Limited Liability Company that remain after the payment of the expenses of conducting the business of the Limited Liability Company. Distributive shares of the net profits based on each Member's ownership percentage of the Limited Liability Company may be made to Members according to the procedures set forth in the Operating Agreement as agreed to by the Members. Additionally, allocation of the net profits to Members, based on each Member's respective contributions to the Limited Liability Company, may be made to Members according to the procedures set forth in the Operating Agreement as agreed to by the Members.

Article IX: Duration

This Limited Liability Company shall exist perpetually, or until dissolved in a manner provided by law, or as provided in the regulations adopted by the members.

Signature of a member or an authorized representative of a member.

This document is executed in accordance with section 605.0203 (1) (b), Florida Statutes.
