ARTICLE IV.

The effective date and time of these Articles of Organization shall be the date and time that these Articles of Organization are filed with the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations.

ARTICLE V.

The purpose for which this PLLC is organized is to engage in every phase and aspect of the business of rendering professional medical services, and to engage in any activities which will facilitate and promote the practice of medicine, or understanding of the practice of medicine generally. The PLLC shall have all the powers granted to a professional limited liability company pursuant to the Florida Professional Service Corporation and Limited Liability Company Act, as amended, including all the powers granted to a limited liability company pursuant to the Florida Revised Limited Liability Company Act. No membership interest in this PLLC may be issued to any person or entity other than an individual or entity duly licensed as a medical doctor or osteopathic physician under applicable law, or except as may otherwise be permitted under the law. Nothing herein shall be construed as limiting or eliminating any such powers. As permitted by Fla. Stat. § 621.08, the PLLC is permitted to invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds, or any other type of investments, and to own real or personal property as necessary for the rendering of professional services.

ARTICLE VI.

The PLLC is formed for an indefinite duration. The PLLC will be manager-managed.

ARTICLE VII.

The Manager is authorized to make, adopt, amend, alter, or repeal the Operating Agreement of the PLLC.

The title, name, and address of each person authorized as a member, or a manager with authority to manage and control the PLLC, consistent with the title ascribed to their respective names, is as follows:

ARTICLE IX.

The business and affairs of the PLLC shall be managed by or under the direction of the Manager, as described in Chapter 605, Florida Statutes, any Operating Agreement entered into, and any amendments thereto. In addition to the powers and authority expressly conferred upon them by statute or by these Articles of Organization or any Operating Agreement of the PLLC, the Manager is hereby empowered to exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the PLLC.

ARTICLE X.

A. The PLLC shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by law any person made or threatened to be made a party to an action or proceeding, whether criminal, civil, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that such person, the person's testator or administrator is or was a member, manager or officer of the PLLC or any predecessor of the PLLC, or serves or served at any other enterprise as a member, manager, director, or officer at the request of the PLLC or any predecessor to the PLLC.

B. Neither any amendment nor repeal of this Article X nor the adoption of any provision of the PLLC's Operating Agreement inconsistent with this Article X, shall eliminate or reduce the effect of this Article X in respect of any matter occurring, or any action or proceeding accruing or arising or that, but for this Article X, would accrue or arise, prior to such amendment, repeal, or adoption of an inconsistent provision.

ARTICLE XI.

The PLLC reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Organization, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon a member herein are granted subject to this reservation.

In accordance with § 621.13(2) of the Professional Service Corporation and Limited Liability Company Act and § 605.0203(1)(b) of the Florida Revised Limited Liability Company Act, the execution of this document constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated herein are true. I am aware that any false information submitted in a document to the Florida Department of State constitutes a third-degree felony as provided for in § 817.155, Florida Statutes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, these Articles of Organization have been subscribed this 17th day of September, 2024, by the undersigned who affirms that the statements made hereto are true and correct.
