Articles of organization for FlowRestor LLC a company in Ft Myers Florida

FlowRestor has patents awarded and patents pending for a device capable of modulating CSF flow. It intends to create embodiments of the patent to modulate CSF flow in dogs and in humans with neurologic disorders related to abnormal CSF flow. One embodiment moderates hyperactive CSF flow in patients with syringomyelia and eventually other disorders with hyperactive flow. Another embodiment of the invention restores CSF flow patterns of stage 3 and 4 sleep that are absent in dogs and humans with cognitive decline - in dogs, Canine Cognitive Disorder and in humans, Alzheimer's Disease.

The company plans to use one or more strategies:

1. Outsource the design and manufacture of prototype which are then distributed to veterinarians in USA and UK for clinical trials and then distribution to veterinary surgeons.
2. Assemble experts in various skills including neurosurgery, engineering, design, finance, clinical testing and marketing to facilitate the manufacture and distribution of the device.
3. Assign the intellectual property to a veterinary or human medical device supply company.
4. Sell the patents to a suitable buyer.
