To Whom It May Concern:

On Tuesday, September 17, 2000 I called your office about a notice I received that our company, Air-Vac Enterprises, Inc. had been dissolved because we had not paid the $150.00 Annual Report Fee.

The first two notices you sent were sent to the wrong address and returned to your office, according to Kathy your employee with whom I spoke. Thanks to an alert postman, we received the third notice, which also had the wrong address. Kathy checked this and said the records were clear your office had made the error. The proper address was clearly in your records and the notices were sent to the wrong address.

She informed me that I should send this letter, informing you of your error, along with a check for $150.00 and you would reinstate our company.

I thank you for having an honest employee such as Kathy that was willing to admit an error.

Please notify me as to the status of our company as soon as reasonably possible.

Yours truly,

DeWayne D. Nutter, President
Air-Vac Enterprises, Inc.
