To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of two corporations, of which I am the sole stockholder, at the suggestion of my legal council. Pastrami Rose Cafe and Catering, Inc., operates a small cafe. Bobcat Enterprises, Inc., which formerly operated the cafe, now only exists to pursue a lawsuit designed to recover losses from "alleged" loans and theft by conversion, by my former accountant and financial advisor.

My former accountant had possession of all records, forms and financial reporting for both corporations, including the 1998 Profit Corporation Annual Report Packets. He retained these and other records upon the termination of our relationship and my subsequent investigation and filing of lawsuits. I have only recently become aware of the annual reports not being filed.

I know that you realize the difficulties that small businesses face today. With legal fees, etc. mounting daily in trying to recover corporation losses, my lawyer recommended that I write to explain the situation and to inquire if it would be possible to file at the original 150.00 fee.

I did call the Division and was told to do as my lawyer instructed, and send the original 150.00 filing fees for both corporations.

Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Rose M. Peters", is written over a horizontal line.
