I am writing you this letter to ask for your help in a matter that has come up in regards to my Annual Corporation's Filing Report. I am asking that you please take a look at my history to try and see the trend in which I have paid my Corporate Fees and documentation in the past years and I think you will see that this has always been done on time.

To be quite honest with you, I truly did not receive the first notice from you as to the fact that my Annual Corporation's Filing Report and Fee's were due. I did not even remember they were due until I received the Second Notice. I am surely glad that I received this notice.

I am enclosing my $150 check in the hopes that this will be sufficient to cover last year's Corporate Taxes. By endorsement of this check, I hope that this indicates that you will waive this additional penalty of which this Second Notice (Which unfortunately was my First Notice) carries.

Thanking you in advance for your kind help in this situation.

Regards,

David K. Brown
