Re: Annual Report

Dear Sirs:

I am writing this letter and including my payment according to the instructions that I received from "Stacy" during a phone call to the Florida Dept. of State on July 1, 1998. I received a second notice, however I did not ever receive a first notice. I am always very attentive to making my payment on time. However, without notice, it seems to have happened. I do know that there is some confusion regarding my physical address and my mailing address. It seems that the post office randomly chooses where to send my mail and that sometimes they send my mail into a dead zone. I often have to send my phone bill in without a bill! I have marked March 15th on my 1999 calendar as a due date for this fee. That way even if all else fails I will know to send my filing fee to the Florida Dept. of State. I appreciate that there is a procedure for handling this mishap and I thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

John W. Solgot
