RE: Letter Number 197A00026650; Ref Number L41240

We have researched the above referenced notice and would like to request that the reinstatement fees be waived based on the following facts.

First, we did not receive a Corporation Annual Report notice for 1995, 1996, or 1997, nor did we receive any kind of notice that we had failed to file. We simply did not realize that the reports needed to be filed since we received no notice.

After receiving the attached notice, we called your office and spoke with Leslie and asked her to check the address the notices were mailed to. The address was an old address that we have not used for several years. She suggested that we write a letter explaining the circumstances.

The filing of the Annual Report came to our attention when our CPA mailed out reminder notices this year due to the increased penalties for late filing. When we called them back to tell them that we did not receive the report in the mail, they obtained a blank form and completed it for us.

Also, regarding the signature of the registered agent, I have been the registered agent since incorporation and am not required to sign Box 11 on each annual report unless there is a change.

Please accept the report as filed with our correct current address. We have enclosed payment for 1995, 1996, and 1997 filing fees of $200, $200, and $165, respectively, for a total of $565. Again, we ask that the reinstatement fees be waived for the reasons stated above.

Respectfully,

Richard W. Collins
