From: James and Dee Steffes

Per our conversation on 7-2-98, I am writing in response to a second notice to file the annual corporation report. I called to check on this since we always have, and continue to pay on time. We are a very small business (husband and wife with 2 employees) and seek to be as frugal as possible. We always pay on time. According to our records we paid on March 12th 1998. When I spoke with Cynthia Blaylock at 850-488-9000, she advised me to write a letter and explain that the payment was sent in a timely manner as it always has been. She obviously noticed the panic in my voice and advised me to write a letter to explain what happened. She also explained that she could not guarantee results, but did say that each case is reviewed on an individual basis. I further explained that we would never let something this important go unpaid or overlooked. I asked if I could prepare a notarized statement attesting that I mailed it or anything to plead my case. My only guess is that it was lost in the mail. I hope that you will trust and believe me. I have never had this happen before with such an important document, or any document for that matter. I hope that you will believe me and accept my payment. Cynthia advised me to send a check and hope for the best.

Sincerely-

Mrs. Dee Steffes
