RE: Coast Pest Control Document Number L 45468

Dear Ms. Brumbley,

I spoke to you on September 26, 1996, regarding my Corporate Renewal application and you advised me after checking your computer the Corporate address, which is always one in the same, was changed but I never received the renewal.

You advised me the proper forms would be sent and the re-instatement fee would be waived due to the State error.

On October 2, 1996, I forwarded my completed form along with my check in the amount of $225.00 which was returned stating a the re-instatement fee of $175.00 was due.

I believe the clerk who received this did not know of our conversations and, therefore, automatically sent it back to me.

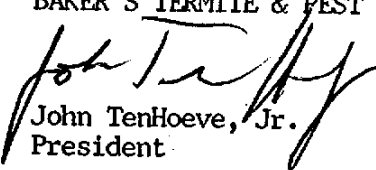

I am sending this directly to you for handling as you know the situation and can handle it in the proper manner.

Please call me at 561-286-1898 if you have any questions or problems in lieu of returning the information to me.

Thanking you in advance for your prompt attention and co-operation regarding this matter,

I remain,

Sincerely,
BAKER'S TERMITE & PEST CONTROL
