Dear Sir or Madam,

I wish to apply, no, implore you to waive the additional monies for this application. I saw that you would if I had not receive the application/notice before. I did not! I now have a "husband in law". Meaning, my now ex wife, Charlene, decided to leave, and she has a new improved husband, hence, my "husband in law." I am better now as I have almost bought out her interest in the business, I am reasonably healthy and the children are with their Daddy. But the office is and has been very messy and to the best of my knowledge this is the first notice I have received. Please feel free to contact my C.P.A., Jack Bush to verify any and all of this information as he has been both a supplier of most valuable services, and as a new found friend, has gone far beyond the norm with the IRS for me, as that too was so messy it is taking nothing less than a really good CPA, Jack Bush, and much patience and patience.

Sincerely,

Mike Abbey
