Dear Sir/ Madam,

I apologize in the strongest terms. This only got to me the first of the week. It has been all around the neighborhood but only got to me when it got to my Son's home. Chris, my Son, lives 3 blocks away from us, and it only got to him as someone else, that had received it accidentally, knew him and made the connection to my company. I do not understand the confusion with our mail other than we seem to get another new fellow or Lady delivery person with great regularity.

Please note that I had to reduce the operation and our telephone numbers to the basics but my address has not changed since I moved home in 1988.

I am but a small company, but our name is important to us and I hope you allow us to keep it. Please excuse me this last time. If I have to I will rent a mail box, just for the company to insure I get all of our mail, especially yours.

Respectfully,

Warren Michael Abbey
