JULY 6, 1999

Dear Sirs:

We phoned your office at 9:08 A.M. on this day, and reported why your 2nd notice for our Annual Corporate Report came to us only on Friday, July 2nd, 1999; and was the first notice we ever received. We write this letter with the completed report and our check in the amount of $150.00 in response to a recommendation from your office that we do so.

Please note that in block 9 of the enclosed report that your department listed our old address. Apparently when you mailed the first notice, it was sent to the old address. We also enclose copies of our amendments which indicate that our new address was filed in your office on Aug. 19, 1998. It seems that our new address was not moved along in your file data.

Thus: your first notice never reached us for reasons we do not know. The person on the phone today noted that we were at all times very prompt in responding and reporting annually.

We therefore most respectfully request that you please accept our above check for $150.00; and please mark us as being in compliance with your instructions. Surely, it was not due to negligence that the first report was not sent; but rather a crossing of the mail or some reason why the first notice was never received.

Sincerely,
Hilda K. Moses
HILDA K. MOSES, pres.
