RE: Lauragher Investments, Inc.
Federal EIN 59-3030617
State Document Number L65560

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing to request you accept the enclosed check for $365.00 to reactivate the corporation reference above (this amount is equal to last year's and this year's Corporate Annual Report filing fees).

I realize now that as part of my job responsibilities last year, I should have filed a Corporate Annual Report. At the time I relied on my CPA to keep me abreast of the filing requirements for all government agencies, and, in fact, most of my corporate, governmental mail used her address. It is apparent that I did not receive the blank report from her to file and therefore never realized of my filing requirements; I have no record of her calling me either to check on this requirement.

It is also noteworthy that since last year I have added to my staff a full time person who will be responsible for such filings in order that this kind of thing not happen in the future.

Your consideration in accepting this check to reinstate my corporation would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Les Gallagher', is written over the typed name and title.

Les Gallagher
President
Lauragher Investments, Inc.
