RE: Uniform Business Reports for Family Medicine & Rehab, Inc., Islamic Hope Foundation, Inc., and Multiple Management Company, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

In reference to our telephone conversation on (850) 245-6056, we are writing this letter as requested. Our office did not receive any notices to file these reports until September 2003 and all the officers for the above named corporations were all in Pakistan, out of the country. Our office manager had received the notices and looked over them during this time, however, they required our signatures, and we were out of the country, so she decided to wait until we got back so we could file the reports. We have just now recently returned and have addressed these notices and are hereby filing them with the original fees. However, it has come to our attention that these corporations have now been administratively dissolved (from looking at the website). Since these forms are getting to you late by no fault of ours, we now ask that you please accept these forms with the original fees and reinstate all three corporations as soon as possible. We appreciate your waiving of the late fees and, if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at (904) 771-1116.

Sincerely,

Syed S. Hussain, M.D.
President of Family Medicine & Rehab, Inc.
President of Islamic Hope Foundation, Inc.
President of Multiple Management Company, Inc.
