Mr. De Bruijn:

We are in receipt of your fax to Karon Beyer in regards to the above referenced corporations and the filing of the 1999 annual reports for each corporation.

Enclosed you will find a blank annual report and corporate detail printout for each corporation. You will need to complete each application in its entirety. I strongly recommend that reports be typed and not hand written, this will help avoid some of the problems encountered by this office in filing the 1998 annual report.

I have enclosed a self addressed return envelope so that the reports can be returned to my personal and confidential attention upon completion, for filing.

We will not assess the $400.00 late fee on each corporation as you have requested. The fee to file will be $150.00 for each corporation. I would like to bring to your attention in your letter dated May 1, 1999, and our subsequent phone conversation, you indicated upon correction of our records the Corporations would be "wound-up" or dissolved. We understood this to mean no 1999 annual reports would be filed.

Sincerely,

Sean Toner
