To Whom it may concern:

Please refer to Document # L85097.

My company was created in 1990 and I have always paid my corporate fees on time until now due to a progressively challenging medical situation which began in 1995. Due primarily to the effects of the medical disorders and the medication I am on under Doctor supervision, (azathioprine and deltasone), it has become increasingly difficult to manage time tables, budgets, objectives, planning, payment schedules, report filings, etc. and still attempt to function normally.

Because of this, I misplaced this annual report form and only discovered it missing and unpaid just recently. Since I have always for the last nine years consistently paid my report on time, I am requesting that you please make an exception on my behalf due to my medical circumstances and accept my payment for my corporate annual report for $150.00 as payment on time.

You have never had any problems with me in the past and I am working diligently to develop new methods for myself and my company to maintain schedules and hopefully avoid further problems like this in the future. With your understanding, I am encouraged to continue being a productive person and business entity for as long as I can.

Respectively submitted for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Richard Kagels
