To whom it may concern,

As per my telephone conversation with Amy Adams, I am resubmitting this form as instructed to correct the error made by your department concerning our corporate refiling. I sent the proper form & check in July but you informed me, it was sent back to us for an unknown reason, but was sent to the wrong address. In turn, we never received that form or our check back.

You informed me that this resubmission will insure our corporate filing status without incurring any penalty.
