Re: Caribbean International Marine Service, L.L.C.

Dear Ms. Mitchell:

Enclosed you will find the 1998 Annual Report for the above referenced Limited Liability Company, along with the standard filing fee of $188.75. I am asking that the Division of Corporations waive the late fee for the reasons I explained when we spoke on the telephone and which I am repeating in this letter.

In April, of this year, I realized that I had not received the annual report form for 1998. I called the Division of Corporation and requested a replacement. However, when I received the mailing from the Division, I found that I had been sent one for a corporation and not for a limited liability company. That precipitated a series of telephone calls which ultimately resulted in my speaking with you on April 29 or 30. When I told you what had happened, you said that you would request another LLC form and that I should return it with the regular fee and a letter explaining what had happened.

Of course, once matters start going wrong, they continue to do so, and I was sent another corporation form. I called you again, and this time you were able to get me the correct form, which I just received and which I am now returning.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Yours very truly,

STEPHEN L. SHOCHET
