To Whom This May Concern:

Per my wife's conversation with your office today, I have enclosed my filing fee of $165.00. Thank you for understanding that I never received the original document with the May 1 deadline. My wife, who also has a small business at the same address, did not receive her statement either. She received a second notice the day before I got mine. We were both surprised. Normally we receive the statements in January and pay them early, even though they're not due until May. I am very meticulous about paying bills, but this was an error I had no control over. Per your instructions, my wife is sending in her document and $165.00 filing fee separately with a similar letter.

Thank you again for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Viorel Vee Florea, President
