Gentlemen:

Please see the enclosed letter written you February 14, 1997.
I did not get a reply to that letter.

I was in Russia for the summer. When I got back, I found the enclosed "2nd NOTICE." However, I never got a first notice.

I am sending you two checks. One is for the $203.75 fee. The other is for the $385 Late Fee.

We are a struggling new company. We did make an effort to determine whether our initial fee covered a fiscal year or calendar year and when the second annual payment would be due.
If you could return the Late Fee, we would very much appreciate it.

Initially, I was using the address of my son's business as our address. Now I wish to use my home address. Can you pick up that change in the street address from the attached form or do you have a separate form for me to use for that purpose?

Sincerely yours,

W. B. Grant
Manager
