'bankruptcy, or dissolution of a member or the occurrence of any other event which terminates the continued membership of a member in the limited liability company.

To avoid dissolution under this Article, the Company must have at least two remaining members. If a disassociation leaves the company with only one remaining member, that member may admit an additional member. In addition to any means for avoiding dissolution provided by Statute, dissolution is avoided upon the disassociation of a member if, within 90 days of the disassociation, consent to avoid dissolution is obtained from all of the remaining members. The consent may be by vote, at a properly called member meeting, or in writing.

Executed this 3 day of October, 1996.
