ARTICLE V
Admission of Additional Members

The right, if given, of the remaining members to admit additional members and the terms and conditions of the admissions shall be: In accordance with Article 10.2 of the Operating Agreement of the Company pursuant to which: No person shall be admitted as an additional or substituted Member under this Agreement unless and until:

- (i) such admission has been approved by the existing Members;
- (ii) an assignment by a Member is made in writing, signed by the assigning Member, and accepted in writing by the assignee, and a duplicate original of such assignment is delivered to each other Member;
- (iii) the Company either waives this requirement or receives an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Company opining that the assignment:
 - (a) will not result in a termination of the Company for federal income tax purposes;
 - (b) will not result in the Company failing to qualify for an exemption from the registration requirements of the federal or any applicable state securities laws;
 - (c) such transfer otherwise will not result in adverse tax consequences to the Company or the Members; and
 - (d) such assignment will not result in a default under any loan agreement, contract or other agreement to which the Company or any of its assets are bound; and
- (iv) the prospective admittee executes and delivers to the Company a written agreement, in form reasonably satisfactory to the Members, pursuant to which said person agrees to be bound by and confirms the agreements, representations, warranties, and power of attorney contained in the Operating Agreement.

ARTICLE VI
Members Rights to Continue Business

The right, if given, of the remaining members of the limited liability company to continue the business on the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of a
