RE: 2000 & 2001 Uniform Business Report (UBR):

Entity Name	FEI Number	Document #
Keenan Investments, L.C.	65-0750499	L97000000255

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to clarify and rectify an unfortunate situation that happened after all of our companies had moved to another location on July 19, 1999. Our previous address was 1500 NW 49th Street, Suite #500, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33309. Being a group of multiple companies working in the Real Estate business at the time of the move, we had made every effort possible to notify everybody concerned, including your office, of our change of address. Unfortunately, the message did not get through to your office, and almost all of our companies did not receive any of the 2000 Uniform Business Report. We just recently found out through our attorney, that most of our companies had now a status of inactive because they were never received and paid for the year 2000.

You will find enclosed the 2001's UBR for the above-mentioned Limited Liability Company with its respective annual fee. Also, since the UBR for the year 2000 was not paid, you will find an additional fee included in the present check attached to its report. For your information, we also sent under separate cover, a letter for each other type of company that we have, i.e. Corporation & Limited Partnership.

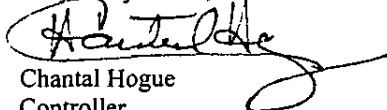

We are very sorry for the inconvenience, and are asking you to understand this very unfortunate situation and reinstate all those companies referenced that had an inactive status without any penalty or extra fees.

You can be assured that you will not see this again in the future, since we made the necessary control system in our department to make sure that we received them all.

If you have any questions, or need any additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you.

Very Truly Yours,

Chantal Hogue

Entity Name	FEI Number	Document #
Keenan Investments, L.C.	65-0750499	L9700000255

To Whom It May Concern:

This is a second letter to your department regarding a UBR for the above-mentioned company, which was returned to us with a request to fill out a reinstatement form with additional fees.

You will find enclosed the 2001's UBR for the above-mentioned Limited Liability Company with their respective annual fees plus a letter that was sent to you on April 23, 2001, which outlines the reasons for the delay in filing.

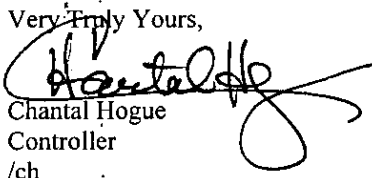

We are very sorry for the inconvenience, and are asking you one more time to realize this is an isolated situation and that you reinstate this company from it's inactive status without any penalty or extra fees.

You can be assured that you will not see this again in the future, since we made the necessary changes in our department to make sure that we received all the reports and that they are filed on a timely basis.

If you have any questions, or need any additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you for your understanding,

Very Truly Yours,
